

Note

1. Permanent Resident: An immigrant student is a permanent resident and has long term status in Canada but has not yet become a Canadian citizen. These students have not been enrolled in a school within Canada before.
2. Refugee: Refugees (also called 'protected persons') are individuals whose seek protection from harm or life-threatening circumstances in their former country. These students have not been enrolled in a school within Canada before.
3. Temporary Resident: A temporary resident has come to Canada legally for a temporary purpose (such as to study, work or visit) and does not have Canadian citizenship. These students have not been enrolled in a school within Canada before.
4. On Reserve: A student is considered on reserve when they live at a civic address on a reserve.
5. Off Reserve: A student is considered off reserve when attending a public school and living in the community of the school.