

Date of release: May 29, 2017

Prairie Spirit appoints new Director of Education

The Prairie Spirit Board of Education announces the appointment of Lori Jeschke as the new Director of Education for Prairie Spirit School Division, effective August 1, 2017. The Division's current Director, John Kuzbik, will retire July 31.

Lori Jeschke

"The Board is very pleased to congratulate Lori on her appointment as Prairie Spirit's Director of Education," said Larry Pavloff, Board Chair. "Prairie Spirit is fortunate to have Lori lead the school division with her extensive and varied experience, exceptional leadership skills and commitment to excellence and learning."

Jeschke is an accomplished professional educator with a track record of improving student learning, building school culture and leading system initiatives through vision and reflection, shared leadership and collaborative team building.

She brings over 29 years of experience with Prairie Spirit School Division to her new position as Director of Education. Jeschke has been a Learning Superintendent with Prairie Spirit since 2011, working in the areas of assessment, evaluation, research and adult learning. She has also been a classroom teacher, vice principal, principal, Human Resources Principal and Coordinator. She completed a Master of Educational Administration from the University of Saskatchewan in 2006.

Most recently, Jeschke has co-presented with national and international education leaders in conferences and institutes in several provinces and states. Her presentations, supported by research, reference the learning excellence that occurs in Prairie Spirit School Division.

-30-

Prairie Spirit School Division No. 206 has 45 schools located in 28 communities surrounding the city of Saskatoon which includes three First Nations and eight Hutterite communities. The student population of approximately 10,700 is served by a team of dedicated professionals and support staff.

For more information, please contact:

Brenda Erickson, Communications Consultant
Prairie Spirit School Division
(306) 683-2800
brenda.erickson@spiritsd.ca